Q3 2022 Market Chatter

PE Firms Taking Advantage of Market Dip with Marquee Take-Privates

- A confluence of rising interest rates, geo-political instability and market drawdown has had a chilling effect on the M&A environment
  - Global M&A volume cleared $642b an ~42% drop from Q2 and the lowest Q3 number in a decade, the US market hit $278b
  - Companies that went public in the boom of 2020-2021 have meaningfully under-performed their established peers
  - Cash rich private equity funds – and even venture funds – are now evaluating investments in highly discounted public companies
